Intellectual Disabilities engaged in Art

High quality learning opportunities for adult people with intellectual disabilities in artwork, art-crafts, soft-skills, entrepreneurial and social media skills

About us

The project “IDeA- Intellectual Disabilities engaged in Art” aims to promote the inclusion of adult people with Intellectual Disabilities (pwID) by providing them high quality learning opportunities in artwork and art-crafts and upskilling the pathway and accessibility of their participation in society and economy by empowering both their art-skills, soft-skills and social media skills, a for art-work related social entrepreneurship promoting their art-work products.

Objectives

- Promote the inclusion of adult people with intellectual disability (pid) in culture, art, digital technology, society and economy (work-market).
- Provide high quality learning opportunities for adult pwID both on artwork and on soft skills development for social entrepreneurship and promotion of their art-products through social media (digital media literacy).
- Create an upskilling pathway for adult pwID from making an art-product to bringing it to the market or digital market and thus offer them accessibility to both education and employability.

Our results
